SCHOOL DAYS this week reminded Gustaf Lorenz that these yearly highlights near summer's end have been going on a long time — only today there are just more youngsters participating. Photo below taken in about 1905 shows one of first Camas schools, built probabl) between 1895-98. Boy i) light jacket, left fore ground is Gus at age 10 —Pictured above is 191! student body gatherec before newer version of high school, built north of old wooden school structure.